Rutgers Is an Investment in Your Future

A college education is one of the most important investments you can make. A Rutgers degree will ensure a bright future lies ahead!

Financial aid is money to help make college more affordable. It can come in the form of grants, work study, loans, or scholarships (more on that later).

Education Is an Important Investment

*Tuition and mandatory fee charges are based on Rutgers–New Brunswick School of Arts and Sciences, School of Arts and Sciences–Newark, and Rutgers–Camden College of Arts and Sciences rates. Amounts will vary according to school or college and personal choices. For figures specific to your school or college, visit finance.rutgers.edu/student-abc/tuition-fees.

Students on F-1 and J-1 visas pay the Rutgers non-New Jersey resident rate and will incur additional expenses for the following: Rutgers SEVIS administration fee (SAF) of $250; annual medical insurance and health services fee(s); books and supplies each semester; travel to and from the U.S.; and other costs of living.

‡Room charges are based on academic year residence hall, double occupancy in New Brunswick; academic year suite, double occupancy in Newark and in Camden. Board charges are based on 210 meal plan in New Brunswick, Raider meal plan in Newark, and 200 block meal plan in Camden.

Calculate the Net Price of a Rutgers Education

Estimate how much it will cost you to attend Rutgers with our easy-to-use Net Price Calculator! This tool will help you calculate what federal, state, and Rutgers aid you may be eligible for. The net price is what a student will pay to attend Rutgers for one academic year after subtracting any financial aid.

Find the Rutgers Net Price Calculator at scarlethub.rutgers.edu/npc or scan this QR code with your smart device.

For more information on tuition and fees, visit finance.rutgers.edu/student-abc/tuition-fees.

Costs listed are subject to change and actual costs depend on a number of variables, including which school you attend, books required, meal plan selected, and other items.
