F-1 International Student Financial Statement – Fall/Spring 2019

International Students who are admitted into a degree program at Rutgers University will need to obtain a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20) in order to enter and/or remain in the U.S. on an F-1 student visa. This requirement applies to both international students coming from abroad and students transferring from another U.S. university or institution.

In order for Rutgers to issue you a Form I-20 you will need to submit:

1. This form with both Part A and Part B completed in its entirety, including the signatures of both you (the student) and your sponsor(s).
2. A copy of the picture page from your passport.
3. Bank statement(s) or letters(s) from you or your sponsor(s), issued no earlier than 9 months of the date you intend to begin your studies. For students beginning in the Fall (September) semester, we cannot accept any bank statement issued before January 1. Account balance(s) must be shown in an amount greater than or equal to $51,000 USD. If you submit a photocopy/scanned file of this document, please keep the original bank statement/letter to bring to your visa interview.

Note: Bank statements must be for a checking, savings, or time deposit account. Brokerage (stock funds), real estate, or any other non-liquid assets are NOT ACCEPTABLE. The name of the account holder printed on the document(s) must match the sponsor name(s) you provide on this form. Any part of this form left blank or completed incorrectly may delay the issuing of your I-20.

ALL PARTS ON THIS FORM MUST BE COMPLETED. (Please write answers in Ink or Type)
